The seamier side of hypnosis

By Bernie

Remember the movie "KIM" (1950) with Errol Flynn and Dean Stockwell (KIM) as Kim sees the broken pot being put back together? The warning not to let someone gesture in a certain way?

Well G.H. Seabrook's covers it all from that angle. Although covering a large range of information he concentrates on what may be the negatives as shown in the table of contents.

1950's Hypnosis Classic

By C In Virginia

This is a classic text on hypnosis. Very hard to find and fetches a premium price, but well worth it. Vendor was a joy to deal with. I'm reading the book through for the third time now. Interesting and thought provoking.

Must read

By Thomas O. Wood

Dispels a lot of myths propagated by licensed hypnotherapists. Also creepy as s*** to read a first hand account of hypnotism from a military hypnotist.
