Man's guide to living in society

By Shihan

This book gives its readers a set of principles which when put to use can be the key to learning how to enjoy life in society in a civilized way. Definitely a must for every parent trying to raise a child in these most difficult times. This book gives you words that transcend race, religion and/or socioeconomic boundaries. If you are looking for a book that will leave you a better person than when you started reading it, then, THIS IS IT!

Worth it

By Ernest Meloche

I love the entire Kung Fu Series and while I had access to the on line resources of all the quotes and plot lines from Kung Fu, this book arrived and organized them well, making the reference useful to me. Sometimes I just open the book and get a bit of wisdom from Master Po, Caine or Master Kan.

I found the book at a "bargain rate" less than $50 including shipping. I noted the prices have soared over $100. I wonder why. I don't think I'd pay $100 for it, but it was worth the price I paid.

Not as good as anticipated

By capitan

Not as good as anticipated. Years ago, the wisdom of Kung Fu came out in LP vinyl. It had both the music and also the actual quotations from the masters taken from the show. It was outstanding and I have tried to find it in cd format for years. I thought the book would be like that but it was not.
