Not a good Finale

By El Fuerte

The series itself drifted off and was way to predictable.... I don't like how they had Liberty switching sides so easily. and I don't like how Dahlia met her demise so suddenly after her build up from the last book. I do like how they brought the Cartel, Dopfiend and Supreme Clientele series together though! but this book was a dud for a finale

Good Read

By Ty_Sweetness78

I just finished reading Murderville 3. I have to say I enjoyed it more than part 2 but it wasn't as good as part 1. I'm glad Ashley and Jaquavis didn't drag the series out for another installment (they're good for doing that). Po was a weak man and could never compare with Asha'i. I didn't like the fact that everyone was easily tricked by Dahlia, I mean was she really all that. There was an inconsistency with them saying at the beginning of the book Liberty didn't need to steal from Po because she had plenty of money. Then when they all got back to Detroit saying that duffle bag of money wouldn't last and Liberty thought she might need to get a job or go back to school. I liked the ending and I'm glad it shows that good does triumph over evil, Liberty won and got the happiness she deserved.

It Was Cool

By Misha

First off...Dahlia is a beast...ruthless, reckless and raunchy! But I didn't like the fact that suddenly folks back from Africa sided with her so fast...but in the end Dahlia met up with another ruthless and reckless female...her name is Karma! The whole Liberty and Po thing was a mess and she basically got with ole boy on the rebound...they never even thought to cross paths like that until they were put in that situation with the African people but I must say...it was a beautiful ending for Liberty! But I'm most excited about is The Illuminati...I love how A&J tie characters from their different books together!
