Review

"Benjamin Laskin is a splendid storyteller with a flair for the dramatic and a talent for characterization."

--James A. Cox, Editor-in-Chief, THE MIDWEST BOOK REVIEW

"What makes Murphy's Luck work best is the tenderness Laskin has for each one of his characters. You'll feel for Murphy because Laskin is so adept at characterization, but you'll be comforted by his antics, even when things are going wrong. There's also a good message about creating your own luck. Murphy might be called "Drummer the Bummer" but this book is far from it: a heartwarming, joyful and entertaining read."--

MURPHY'S LUCK BY BENJAMIN LASKIN PDF

Sometimes rotten luck is better than no luck at all.

Jinxed from birth with astonishing bad luck, Murphy Drummer hasn't ventured beyond his backyard since he was a little boy. To remedy his loneliness he immersed himself in the mastering of hundreds of hobbies, and in the process developed some amazing abilities.

Now grown up, Murphy must seek a new sanctuary where the world might be safe from his mystifying jinx. Trailing both miracles and mayhem wherever he goes, Murphy stumbles into Joy Daley, a happy-go-lucky optimist who never forgot to thank her lucky stars. The comical, topsy-turvy effects from the collision of Lady Luck and Murphy's Jinx whimsically upends the lives of everyone in their paths.

At first, Murphy's victims question who he is; at last, they'll be questioning who they aren't. An inspiring and magical romantic comedy of wood-tapping proportions.

Funny!

By Nancy

I had to give this 5 Stars as I've never laughed out loud so much during scenes. The author creates vivid character; even the ones you don't like are interesting. Poor Murphy seems to have no luck and wherever he goes, chaos follows. Can he live a normal life? Can he find a girlfriend? Can he walk down a street without someone having to an ambulance? I only wish there had been one more public transportation scene. An air plane would have been nice...

if you like humor you'll like Murphy's Luck.

A heartwarming romp, suitable for young and old alike

By Lisa B.

Just happened to stumble on this book and was thoroughly delighted by the twists and turns and laugh-out-loud fun that ensued. If you like puzzles, numbers, wordplay, slapstick, love stories, and more, you'll love Murphy's Luck! I was looking for a quick read and a departure from the spate of darkly suspenseful books that seem to line the shelves lately, and this little gem delivered. Mr. Laskin created a charming cast of characters with just enough depth to satisfy those with more philosophical inclinations. Will need to read this one again to unearth more of the multitude of clues, references, foreshadowing, and bits of wisdom buried inside. I look forward to reading more of Mr. Laskin's novels.

LAUGHING OUT LOUD IS GOOD FOR YOU, RIGHT?

By Windy

Tired of reading mysteries, thrillers, who's going to marry the next Billionaire? Finding nothing new in books featuring mail order brides, how to be debt free or coping with grief? Are you interested in a book that is whimsical, a little over the top, with humor thrown in? I recommend "Murphy's Luck" written by an author who must have a strange outlook on life but is an excellent purveyor of words. He marches to a different drummer and if you read the book you'll get my humor from those words.
