The book is great in that it does have numerous questions to help guide your communication with your significant other in getting to know each other intentionally, but furthermore it has a few paragraphs in each section discussing the biblical perspective so you are not left with only questions. The book definitely has helped my fiance and I think, talk through some important and forgotten topics. It helped us to find a deeper intimacy shared through understanding.

Great book to prepare for marriage, not just your wedding!

By n8tr8r

A great pre-marital book for couples that want to spend time preparing for their marriage, not just their wedding! I offer pre-marital guidance sessions with couples and use this book almost exclusively. It has great advice, and great worksheets with in-depth questions to really get you thinking about your past, your hopes for the future, and your expectations. I highly recommend this for any couple who is getting married or any pre-marital counselor.

Great Book!

By Amazon Customer

My wife and I completed this marriage prep book while we were engaged and now we are going through the book with an newly engaged couple. I think the authors did a great job asking real life questions while keeping Christ in focus.
