SCENT OF A WOMAN BY GIOVANNI ARPINO PDF

Two soldiers travel across Italy at the height of summer, passing through Genoa, Rome and Naples. One of the soldiers is blind, graceful, gleefully vicious and wears a prosthetic arm; the other, twenty years his junior, is his guide. But as these men drink their way through bars, brothels and train carriages, who is guiding who? Only as they reluctantly approach the blind man's destination, and a stifled love affair, does the purpose of the trip become tragically clear. The inspiration for two acclaimed films, Scent of a Woman is a lyrical exploration of regret, defiance, and what it really means to see.

darkest corners of Fausto's personality

By lovevonbeautyvonlove

It's a book for those who try to understand complex characters. It was not a light reading. Fausto, a retired blind and disabled captain, travels every summer to Italy. He gets a soldier from his commandment to accompany him on a short trip. A volunteer who soon regretted his generosity.
