The Story of O, Mr. Benson, and The Beauty Trilogy are all best-selling novels that describe the highly erotic and alternative sexuality called “slavery.” As enticing as the lives of the sexually dominant and submissive characters in these books are, they remain fictional. A brave few have tried to make the master/slave lifestyle a reality.

Slave-ography is the amazing and true story of slave Patrick as he became Jack Rinella’s slave, that is, a man who enters the sex-filled life of voluntary servitude.

It’s not all sex in these pages. Here you will discover the what, why, and how of a twenty-first century version of a life lived in service, devotion, and obedience. Can “slavery” be real? Patrick would be the first to say “Yes” and this book is the proof of his affirmation.

An important read for (especially male) subs/slaves

By Scot Hill

Beyond the world of merely fetish and porn there exists 24/7 Master/slave relationships. This journal is full of keen insights into this relationship dynamic that can help those interested in exploring this lifestyle for themselves or a friend. I highly recommend this resource.

good ,but too much sharing of his owners writing

By slavet

It was a good view of how some consensual slaves live,but there was way too much input from his owners point of view.
