The Best Resource for Teaching Bridge to Young People

By Patricia M.

The only problem is finding enough copies at a reasonable price. It is the best of all the materials I have seen. It would be terrific if you could reprint it because the field of teaching bridge to youth is expanding rapidly. Maybe you could publish with ACBL. Thanks Pat Mitchell

Great first bridge book for young AND old

By David R. Smith

I used to play bridge during medical school and when I noticed my 9th grader showing interest in hearts and Eucre I decided to buy this book for him for Christmas. We are reading it together and I am learning as much as him. I agree with the other reviewer in that this is not just a book for kids but valuable as a first book for adults who want to learn. I highly recommend it as a first book for young and old.

Good intro to playing bridge

By Jil and Jay

We got this for our grand-children (9 and 11)who were able to use it to get started playing bridge. It goes from the very basics up to rather advanced bidding, etc.
