Review

Tickled Pink is a wonderful tale that runs the gamut of emotion, from shocking and dark all the way to sensual, romantic and psychologically rich.

I found this to be an astonishingly wonderful romantic adventure that opened up my eyes to a whole new world of sexuality and kink. The relationship between Master and Submissive is explored in deft detail and nothing is included purely for salacious value. The vivid descriptions of the encounters between the protagonists Ellie and Mark, from a forced kidnapping to a sensual weekend away, are so expertly drawn they put you right in the mindset of both characters. Even fetishes and desires that I had never really considered, such as tickling, make total sense to me here.

As I writer of erotica myself, what Miss Wanton is doing here puts me to shame! A gripping and arousing read that you'd be a fool to miss! - Cameron Lincoln, Amazon.co.uk

Tickled Pink (RECOMMENDED READ KINKY BOOK REVIEWS)

I don't believe that I have ever been so moved by a BDSM erotic romance before. The title doesn't do it justice. The blurb does a great job at sucking you in. But it is the story that is so engaging and relatable to some people in the lifestyle, that I found myself crying at parts I know the average reader wouldn't.

I didn't just relate to the soul deep need of the submissive. But I related to Mark as well. I think we have all had that moment off doubt. Where we are either told we are freaks or monsters, or made to feel that way, for the lifestyle we have chosen. Even by people that claim to be like minded judge. There is a moment in the story where Mark is talking about his past. I was reading this in a line at Disneyland and sobbing behind sunglasses, thank God.

And boy, do I relate to Ellie. Each new day is a discovery, and I felt Ellie's needs so totally that I wanted to step in her shoes through the story. It was so much more than erotic romance. The characters touched me on a very passionate level. I wanted more. I got a tease in the epilogue, but Ellie and Mark are addictive to read about. And I would love to know how they pull off TPE with kids. winks And the Anne Rice quote to end -brilliant!

I have not read The Training of Tess, but I will be reading it very soon!

This is a recommended read and I hope you grab yourself a copy!
